

Welcome Nikos!

Hi to everybody. I am Nikos K. originally from a Greek island, living in Barcelona, Spain.

Being young, I have been brought up, exploring especially the classical philosophies. It has been an intriguing experience that has introduced me into the subject. It has been a very long trip, many years of life experience and lessons learnt. I have been lucky to live in several countries, know many different people and make many friends. Many ports visited and many experiences and states of feeling compared.

Epicuriamism is the way of life that has finally attracted me. I do enjoy "λαθε βιωσας", far from the turmoil of the competitive life, happy with the so many gifts that life has provided for me. I am grateful to have and enjoy all what is necessary.

I am happy to have many good friends in many different countries and spend time with them, travelling or spending time in conversations with them in a Greek island, enjoying fresh figs, under the shadow of an olive tree.

It would be a pleasure for me to join you and have the opportunity to interchange opinions and experiences. Who know, perhaps some of you could join me under the olive tree, in a Greek island, near Samos.
