Wikipedia says Philōnídēs is from "Laodicea in Syria" but P.Herc. 1044, fr. 45 says that, after leaving Athens:

"... during Philōnídēs' voyage to Syria - having detoured homeward, he was planning to return into Caria (εἰς Καρία[ν]), so that he might not be away from his parents..."

(Syrian) Laodicea on-the-sea OR (Carian) Laodicea on-the-Lycus?
