Hello, and thank you for the warm welcome!

I'm originally from Spain but currently living in Ireland. Recently, I rediscovered Epicurus through the work of Spanish author Fabián C. Barrio, whose clarifications of Epicurean philosophy resonated deeply with me. Inspired by these insights, I sought to connect with fellow Epicureans—thanks to DeepSeek for guiding me to this community!

While I still have much to read and learn before making significant contributions, I'm delighted to be part of this philosophical journey alongside all of you.

Cheers,
Vlas
