

Sunday Zoom - July 20, 2025 - 12:30 PM ET - Topic: Twentieth Meeting

In cleaning up the subforum for our Sunday meetings I see that we did not create a thread last week, given that we held our Twentieth Meeting at this time since the 20th was on a Sunday. In order to avoid confusion in the forum listing I'm adding this filler to indicate that we did in fact meet, and in fact had one of our best-attended meetings ever.

We'll return to normal format on July 26th.
