

Welcome D Campbell!

Thanks very much for welcoming me into your group. My interest in Epicureanism was originally piqued when I read The Swerve by Stephen Greenblatt. Since then I've picked up a copy of De Rerum Natura (which I love so far) and have started reading The Cambridge Companion to Epicureanism. As I said in my initial note to Cassius, I'm just getting started, but look forward to taking advantage of the all the resources this site has to offer. Thanks again
