@Eikadistes

Great work, especially how you turn topics for which Epicureans are often criticized and are seen as weaknesses in strengths:

-the arts against what really matters

- political engagement vs civic engagement and against manipulation

You go very deep, I also like Philodemus he is for me what for the Stoics is Seneca

Have you ever written an essay on Stoicism vs. Epicurean Philosophy?

I wish I could find such an essay from someone like you with your knowledge and depth ☐☐
