Quote from Cassius

So the third article that will come will address Epicurus' advocacy for "minimal parts" of the atom. After reading what Claude has compiled I think I finally see the issue and how indeed Epicurus did make significant advances beyond Democritus on that part of atomism.

Are you using an account on Claude (Anthropic) or Groc (xAI) for these articles? I've seen you mention both. If you give the same docs, guidelines & prompts to both, how different are the results?

Thanks for sharing your process.
