Tau Phi I have a question here - is this "dehorting" a typo?

PLUTARCH, Against Colotes, 34, 1127 d [5]

If those who abolish laws, governments, and polices of men subvert and destroy human life, and if Metrodorus and Epicurus do this, by dehorting and withdrawing their friends from concerning themselves in public affairs, by hating those who intermeddle in them, by reviling the first most wise lawgivers, and by advising contempt of the laws provided there is no fear and danger of the whip punishment.
