

The Wise Man Will Marry and Have Children ... According To The Circumstances of His Life

Post by “Godfrey” of October 28, 2019 at 10:35 PM

Child rearing (and old age, I'm told) is not for the faint of heart. There are profound pleasures, but whoever first said that you're only as happy as your unhappiest child was quite right.

Then again, life isn't for the faint of heart! 😊