Cassius, I believe I've used the term ET/extraterrestrial, but I meant it in a neutral way-- just as beings not on earth but on another planet.

I think it's quite possible some beings like that are out there.

Elayne This is also my assumption. It is much closer to what I understand Epicurus is portraying such god, a remote and disconnected god. This, so far, makes sense to me since the theory of Annunaki as the gods of the so-called "Garden of Eden" is somehow gaining attention from the mainstream Archaeology.
