

Lucretius - Essential and most important texts

Post by "Cassius" of January 26, 2020 at 4:43 PM

On first thought - the introductory sections of each of the six books, all of which refer to Epicurus and/or general ethics issues

The section reconciling us to death (end of book three)

The section in book four discussing the primacy of the senses over reason.