I'll set it up tonight then and leave a link to both share and if anyone has any input or suggestions. Thank you Cassius

Charles I appreciate the offer and will certainly discuss some of the content with you as well. I'll start off slowly at first, but we can link these pieces of content back to both these forums and your Discord server, if you're comfortable with that, as well as the various sites and projects of other members on here.
