

The Neglect of Metrodorus' Economics

Post by "Elli" of February 17, 2020 at 11:14 AM

On the above VS 45 there are also two greek words "περιμάχητον παιδείαν" [pron. perimachiton peadeian] and is translated "the kind of education that is fought over by the many", although it literally means "the kind of education that is sought after by the many". That is to say, if you follow/study the marketable education that is based on Socrates, Plato, Aristotle and the like you will lose yourself/identity for becoming one of the mobs that follow blindly their leaders!