

Daily Interactions With The Non-Epicurean World

Post by “Mike Anyayahan” of February 26, 2020 at 9:36 AM

I agree. In fact, this is what we should be preoccupied with if we want to grow and make a non-Epicurean world an Epicurean one. This is what priests and pastors do. Every Sunday, they talk about how Christians would live in a secular world. If we don't do it, we will remain a small and endangered species remote from the real world.