

Getting Started - Initial Thoughts on 3D Printing

Post by “Don” of April 1, 2020 at 7:29 AM

I know next to nothing about 3D printing but am definitely curious. We have several printers in our library's Maker Space. I know what I'll be experimenting with now after we're back in-person. Thanks everyone for all this info and these files!

My only offer is a the link to the Wikipedia article on STL file format (with See Also links to the other 3d formats)
