

2018 Panhellenic Symposium of Epicurean Philosophy - Athens Greece

Takis' idea to have a live Facebook streaming was brilliant, so that all our international friends have a chance to at least capture the feeling and flow of our 8th Panhellenic Symposium of Epicurean Philosophy. Despite the bad rainy weather about 450 people have attended this year (this is a new record)!

We are filled with katastematic pleasure; physically exhausted but happy.
