The Vatican Sayings are relevant here. Cyril Bailey;

Quote

10

Remember that you are mortal and have a limited time to live and have devoted yourself to discussions on Nature for all time and eternity and have seen "things that are now and are to come and have been."

11

For most men rest is stagnation and activity is madness.

14

We are born once and cannot be born twice, but for all time must be no more. But you, who are not master of tomorrow, postpone your happiness. Life is wasted in procrastination and each one of us dies without allowing himself leisure.

78

The noble soul occupies itself with wisdom and friendship; of these the one is a mortal good, the other immortal.
