

Making Epicurean Canonics Understandable

Post by "Cassius" of October 31, 2020 at 7:10 AM

The posts above in this thread are excellent and need to be extended - but they don't really fit under the "Friendly Debate Show" topic where they started. I'll move these either to a totally new thread under the Canon category or somewhere else.

If someone thinks "Making Epicurean Canonics Understandable" could be improved, let me know!
