The History of the 20th Celebration
From the Will of Epicurus

"The income of the property left by me to Aynomachus and Timocrates shall be divided by them as far as possible, with the advice of Hermarchus, for the offerings in honor of my father and mother and brothers, and for the customary celebration of my birthday every year on the tenth of Gamelion, and likewise for the assembly of my disciples which takes place on the twentieth of each month, having been established in recollection of myself and Metrodorus."

Happy Twentieth to all

I wrote a blog for today following up on "Back to the Basics" (Letter to Menoecus), where I ask: But what if we were to focus on having "the sweetest enjoyment of luxury" from time to time, rather than on being "contented with little if we have not much"?
