

Opening of EpicurusToday.com News Aggregator

I have been meaning to improve (1) our ability to keep track of Facebook discussions, and (2) our ability to keep track of recent posts on our main ("core") pages, and (3) our ability to find major articles in a central location. So today I set up <https://l.facebook.com/l.php?u=http%3...NYNJpb-mUXbSPyw> using a format many of you will find familiar, and hopefully quick and easy to navigate. For the moment it won't have much more than a running feed of the latest posts at NewEpicurean, Society Of Epicurus, Menoecus Blog, and the EpicurusPhilosophy page, but I will migrate the Facebook post index over to this page, where it should be much easier to maintain and access. I will also work to include a Twitter feed and other "news" features.

I also hope this will go some ways toward replacing the weekly newsletter that I did for several years. Not sure it that will work, but we'll see - in the meantime I hope you find this useful because it should already be a good place to check for the latest updates to the major blogs which I think give you the most reliable interpretation and application of Epicurean philosophy you can find anywhere on the internet. Carpe Diem!
