Good evening!

As many have noticed, the forum was spammed by what was probably a bot at around 11:30 PM Eastern. I have attempted to delete all of the offending material. If anything is still showing up on your end please let me know. Site Administrator Cassius and Coordinator Kalosyni will proceed with a ban when they log on.

Thank you for your patience!

Joshua

Thank you Joshua for the action and Don for the warning. Just woke up and saw this. The user has been banned along with another recent user - fuser73 - whom the system had already disabled due to his address showing up in a forum spam database. As Joshua said if anyone sees any remaining spam or anything else unusual, please let us know.
