First Monday

Epicurean Philosophy Discussion via Zoom

November 6, 2023 - 8pm ET

We especially welcome those who are new to the EpicureanFriends.com forum in the last 6 months to join us for meet-and-greet and philosophy discussion. This meeting is open to long-time members as well.

Please RSVP
by November 5th.

This next Monday is our First Monday Zoom - meet-and-greet and philosophy discussion. This is a great way to meet others who are studying the philosophy of Epicurus and bring up any questions you might have. We welcome those who are new to the forum and also long-time members as well. If you haven't yet participated in a First Monday Zoom meeting, please message me for further info.

Agenda for the evening: We will run about an hour, and start with greetings. Then move to open discussion on Epicurean philosophy and Q&A for any who have questions.

And a possible discussion topic: The Epicurean lifestyle - implementing core Epicurean principals.

Hope to see you there! 😊

Just a reminder that this next Monday is our First Monday Epicurean Philosophy Discussion - 8pm ET - via Zoom - meet-and-greet and discussion! If you haven't yet attended a Zoom and you are interested in attending, let us know here in this thread or private message me, and I will get the link to you.

We'd enjoy getting to meet some of you who have been posting lately -- burninglights - @Blank_Emu43 - Jo ...and others who have been visiting Lowri834 Plantpierogi

And European time zone members (wanted to include you though realize it may be inconvenient time) Titus Peter Konstans Eoghan Gardiner fyi - with Zoom there are some of us who choose to use voice only, so it isn't a requirement to use video.

Will be sending a private message with Zoom link to our regulars.

I would join but I have work at that time (10:00am AEST). I don't finish work on Monday until 11:00am but even after that wouldn't be good as I do any house chores immediately after work.

Thanks for the invite though! Maybe one day I'll be able to.

Thanks for the invitation Kalosyni! It would be great to chat with you all in a meet but unfortunately I also have a conflict at that time

You're welcome, and perhaps sometime in the future we may have a meeting earlier in the daytime (perhaps on a weekend...since an earlier time such as 2pm ET would also allow for some of our European members to attend). Hope your daylight savings time transition turns out okay. Looking forward to seeing your continued posts on the forum. 😊

Would love too but the time doesn't work for me at the moment but hopefully be able to attend the virtual garden in the future.

Last night we had a good meeting, and a total of eight of us! I brought up the following two questions which you can read in the following thread. If you missed the meeting, but would like to weigh in on the discussion topic, please feel free to do so:

Post

RE: What Makes Someone "An Epicurean?"

Last night at our Zoom meeting I brought up the discussion question of "What makes someone an Epicurean?" and also followed that with "Would you consider yourself an Epicurean?" ...and we had lots of interesting thoughts shared on these two questions.

Here are a few of the points (of what I can remember) which came up regarding whether someone considers themselves to be an Epicurean:

-- a person adopts that label for themselves

-- the study and implementation of the philosophy of Epicurus
