Post by “Eoghan Gardiner” of May 7, 2018 at 2:21 PM

Hey guys I decided to make an Epicurean blog, I always wanted to do a blog and I may as well do it on something I am really interested in. If you guys could read it and critique I would really appreciate it. Thank you very much!

GREAT Eoghan! Blogging for oneself is one of the best ways to get things to come together in your own mind, as you try to explain things to others.

Great - as soon as I can I will add this to the list of Epicurean sites at Epicurustoday.com, and my personal RSS feed, so I can track new posts.
