It gives me great pleasure to inform you that the Greek branch of UNESCO and under the auspices of the Mayor of Athens and of the Mayor of Pallini will organize the 1st Panhellenic Meeting of Happiness "Happiness is a Human Right" in order to discuss philosophically and scientifically about happiness and present the Declaration of the right of happiness in the European Union. On the 20th of March (International Day of Happiness) we will announce the details of the 1st Panhellenic Meeting of Happiness which will take place on April 14.

The event will be all in Greek? Or something is in English?
Is not too far from my home, but I do not speak Greek at all...

Alas Michele, their work is mostly in Greek only. Two years ago they live-streamed an event on Youtube, and they are getting better at adding videos to the internet, but so far they are only in Greek and they have not had the resources to add subtitles. Making progress in that direction is certainly something we need to work on.

Also I should add that there are two groups: The Garden of Athens, in which Christos is active, and the Garden of Thessaloniki, in which Elli and others are active.
