Hello!

I've been reading Epicurean philosophy for a handful of years but have been unhappy with the inconsistencies of most of the articles I've read about it. It wasn't until I found the community on Facebook that I understood what I had been missing. I'm glad to have this forum with Epicurean-friendly administration so we don't have to worry about losing important resources to the vagaries of disinterested or antagonistic third parties! I look forward to seeing what may come.

Also, every post and comment, no matter how small, helps in understanding how the forum software works and allows me to fine-tune it, so thanks for both the comment and the "likes" so we see how the like mechanism works.

It's great software! Kudos for trying something new. Too many forums are stuck in the 90s.
