

New Forum For Reviews of Epicurean Books, Articles, and Video/Multimedia

How many times has someone asked: "Do we know about "Such-And-Such Book" by "This or That" author?"

I should have organized this better a long time ago, but better late than never. We need, and now have, a dedicated forum for discussing "modern" books, articles, and videos related to Epicurus.

So here's a place to post a thread on any book you'd like to discuss:

Library - "Modern" Books and Articles

Please start threads in the format: LastName (FirstName) - "TitleOfBook"

But don't worry about that too much as we can fix it so that the thread titles are uniform. If you can in the first post, please post a link to where a PDF of the book can be found (if available) or a link to where the video can be seen (such as at Youtube).
