Physics - List of Primary CItations in Physics

Primary Citations in Physics

Epicurus' own works on physics are accessible today primarily in the Letter to Herodotus and the Letter to Pythocles.

Additional reliable ancient sources are Lucretius' "On the Nature of Things" and the Inscription By Diogenes of Oinoanda.

Fragments of additional material from Epicurus are found in various decipherings of the Herculaneum Fragments.