Timetable Of The Epicurean World

Based on information originally put together by Don and Nate, this is an effort to "pretty it up" into a Table form which we can reference more easily and update collaboratively. If you have suggestions please place them in the comments below. If you'd like to do more extensive editing and don't have write access, please contact Cassius.

Green is for Epicurean. Red is for non-Epicurean. Blue is for "events."
